Game Boy Reviews

✓ We promise every game has been tested by our expert players. They tell you what they really think and won't score a game high they wouldn't want to play themselves...

How they score

0-44 Real rubbish
45-64 Still not worth playing
65-79 Nothing too special
80-89 Pretty good, but not exactly great
90-100 Amazing game you must play!

Awesome

Our Awesome award is only given to games we love and think you really must play. It's only ever given to games that score over 90%.

Pokémon Puzzle Challenge

Whether they're Red, Blue, Gold or Silver, the Pokémon crew are back out to play in a puzzler all of their own...

LOOKS Vibrant, colourful and the Pokémon look so cute! The game screen isn't all that, but it does the job.

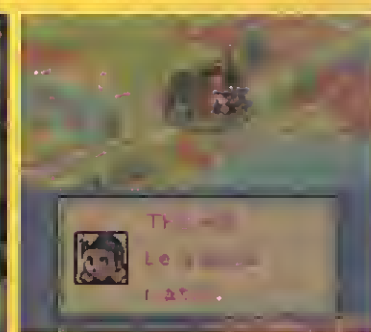

The gang's all here

They've been pinball wizards, snapped in the wild and now it's their turn to put their hand to becoming the GB Color brain strain kings.

Puzzlers have come a long way since the early days of Tetris, but now the old boy might be about to get a pasting.

Starring a wealth of characters from all your favourite Game Boy quests, Pokémon Puzzle Challenge is just what the doctor ordered.

So if you want to Pika puzzler to test your skill and nerve, let's get it on and show those Gym Leaders how it should be done...

▲ The land of Johto is yours to roam in this absorbing Pokémon title. Dare you take up the challenge of the Gym Leaders?
 ◀ If you've got the brains then Pikachu and pals have the game for you. Create chain reactions and become the puzzle champion.

Look at 'em go

The opening movie in Pokémon Gold and Silver is a hoot and the start of Puzzle Challenge is just as impressive.

Before meeting Professor Elm you'll see Chikorita bounding across an open field in search of her buddies. Isn't she so cute!

Suddenly two monsters come into view, Totodile the crazy Water Type Pokémon and Cyndaquil the fiery little beast.

However, the ace movie doesn't stop there as high above the clouds Pikachu and Pichu float into view clutching a bunch of balloons.

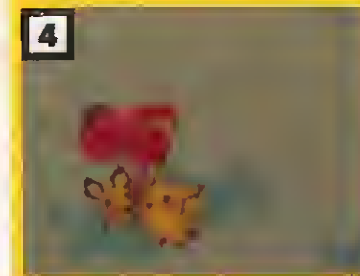

▲ The start of the game sees lovely Chikorita running across the open countryside.

► Suddenly Totodile and Cyndaquil come into view. Isn't the gang the cutest thing you've ever seen?

▲ But hang on a sec, what's going on up in the clouds. Let's take a look...

▲ Wayhey! It's Pichu and Pikachu floating high above the clouds. You guys are so crazy!

SOUNDS Take the music from the Pokémon quests, give it a little remix and you'll get this. Neat!

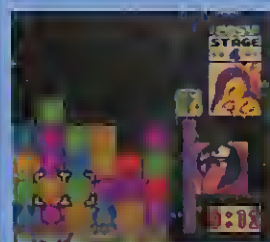

What's going on

When you start playing Puzzle Challenge you'll wonder where you should begin as you stare at a screen filled with blocks.

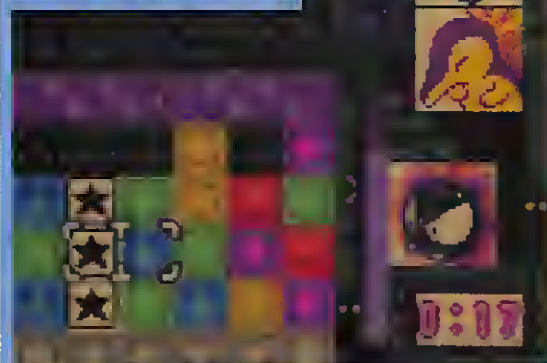

To win each round the idea is pretty straightforward. By joining three or more blocks of the same colour they will disappear.

What makes matters worse is that the screen continually moves up and you'll need to shift or face meltdown as blocks reach the top.

The computer even drops trash filling your screen, so be quick.

◀ To play the game it's your job to join three or more blocks of the same colour. Better get switching!
▼ Connect them and they will disappear. Just make sure you keep them away from the top.

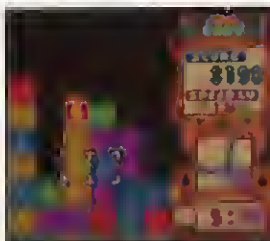

▲ Watch for trash your rival dumps on your screen 'cos it could spell doom.

Be a blockhead

Pokémon Puzzle League is one of the best N64 puzzlers and this GBC version is the same, just a little watered down.

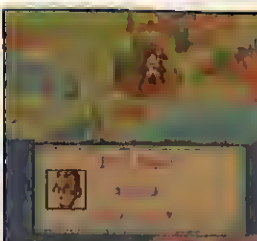

Naturally there's no 3D version like on the N64 and you can only see your grid, not your opponents. Instead a bar lets you know how well they're doing.

Pokémon expert, Professor Elm, also pops up as you travel between challenges, so let's see what he's got in store down in the land of Johto...

Marathon

Get your sleeping bag and Pot Noodle ready and play all night and day. Just don't make the blocks hit the top of the screen or you're finished.

Challenge

The Gym Leaders are simply crying out for a bout. Travel Johto and whup their butts with your expert combo and chain reaction tactics.

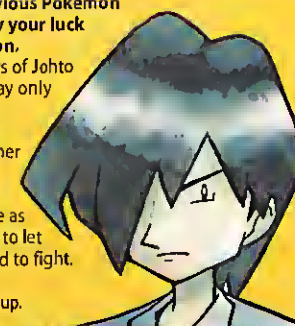

Leader of the pack

To meet some familiar faces from previous Pokémon adventures your main mission is to try your luck defeating them in the Challenge option.

As you travel the highways and byways of Johto you'll stop at different Gyms along the way only to be confronted by a mean Leader.

Your first stop is the Violet Gym where Falkner awaits with his Pidgey while further down the road you'll meet the likes of Bugsy, Whitney and Pryce.

Each one has a squad exactly the same as those in Gold and Silver and aren't going to let you leave without a battle, so be prepared to fight.

► Falkner and his barnet is your first match up.

▲ Play the Challenge option and you can play the Gym Leaders from Gold and Silver.

What'll it be?

The brand new Pokémon are a joy to look at and you can play with them in Puzzle Challenge.

Your squad consists of the initial three creatures in Gold and Silver, Chikorita, Cyndaquil and Totodile.

The way you play isn't affected by which one you choose, but you will be able to pick up more along the way.

As you play, your monster will even make different expressions depending on how well you're doing. Just watch their distraught face when you drop a clanger!

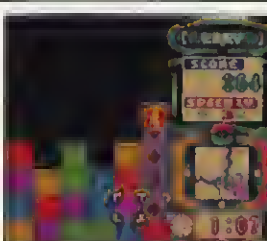

▲ You'll begin the game with three starting Pokémon.

▲ Before battle, pick the monster you want and get fighting. They don't affect your game, but it's great to play with them.

► Poor old Totodile looks so upset. Better make him happy by pulling off a cool chain reaction of combos.

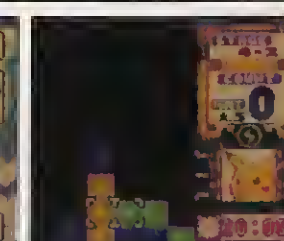

Time Zone

With the seconds ticking away can you rack up a high score again and again? If you've got what it takes to set a record, this is for you!

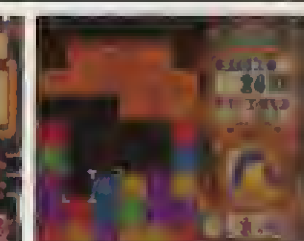

Line Clear

A massive 30 stages await the most discerning Pokémanciac. Destroy the blocks sitting above the white line to move onto the next challenge.

Puzzle

Scan the screen and clear it using the number of moves required. If you're having problems, hit SELECT for a handy hint. Hard, but fun.

Garbage

Battle a fellow Pokémon and clear as many blocks as you can before they hit the top. Be quick, 'cos they're after you with their trash!

Poké master class

The Gym Leaders are crafty when it comes to the crunch, so to get one up on them you'll need some tricks of your own.

To take them to the cleaners you've got to join more than three blocks and set up chain reactions when those above drop into place.

It pays to be inventive as the more chains you complete will cause larger garbage blocks to be dropped on your rival.

Quick thinking can also clear your screen at the last minute and can give you a valuable breather when it gets manic.

▲ Creating blocks of three is easy, but to get anywhere four block combos are a must.

▲ As blocks are removed try and line them up with the ones below to form a smart chain reaction.

▲ You'll be laughing your socks off as your rival getslobbered with a giant pile of trash after a successful combo. Come on!

Catching Pokémon

As all monster maniacs know, catching creatures is a very satisfying event in Pokémon games and the same thing happens in the cool one player Challenge mode.

As you travel between Gyms you'll be offered out in a one off battle against various Trainers who think they are well hard.

Each Leader has a different squad of wild 'n' wacky creatures and some take some very good strategies to beat.

If your training has been up to scratch you'll have no trouble wiping that smirk off their face with a well timed move.

Finish them off and, as well as the sweet taste of victory, you may get your hands on their Pokémon to add to your team.

▲ Even Gym Leaders have a completely different squad for you to battle.

▲ Cyndaquil's moves look like they've had the desired effect. Victory is nearly yours!

▲ Face some Pokémon Leaders and you can even nick their monsters to add to your squad.

Time for a ruck

Okay, so the GB Advance will offer four player games, but there are still some wicked two player GBC titles to be had.

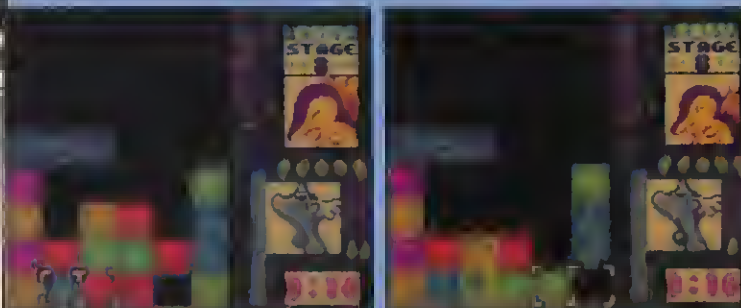

One new entry is easily Puzzle Challenge and you'll be battling long and hard to see who is the number one block buster around.

With pride at stake and only one winner, you must stay alert and ready to rattle off a four block combo or two.

Just make sure you have mastered the art of chains and your mate will be running home with his tail between his legs in no time.

Beat them and you'll have the right to claim the crown of Pokémon king.

▲ Remember large blocks and chain reactions are the order of the day if you want to win.

▲ It certainly gets mental when you and a mate start to battle. Don't expect defeat, Nintendo!

▲ For added enjoyment you can fight your rival's squad and see who's the best.

Toy Story Racer

By Activision Price £24.99 Game Link ✓
Infra Red X Game Boy X Game Boy Color ✓

What it's about Buzz returns from Star Command duty to the comfort of Andy's home. The bedroom gang, including Woody, Bo Peep and Mr Potato Head are raring to go for a spot of racing. Grab the coins and special power ups as you try to finish first across some manic 3D courses including futuristic Pizza Planet.

We think Toy Story Racer is a good idea and the coders have tried a 3D effect that very nearly comes off. However, it's marred in many places. Control is ropey as all you have to do is hit the gas without turning to finish each course and there are some duff looking racers. It's a shame, but it doesn't have the magic we've come to expect.

▲ Steer clear of the wheel Woody or your controls will reverse.

▲ There's no need to steer through gaps. Just hit the gas gamers!

▲ Woody may be the leader of the gang, but he's got some catching up to do if he wants to get back in front. Give it some gas RC!

▲ The stairs are a great place to pick up some speed and overtake the slower racers. Don't look down Buzz, it's a very long way to the bottom.

▲ Don't get too close to the table leg or you'll spin just like useless Buzz. Mr Potato Head will have an easy chance to get ahead now.

▲ Pizza Planet is home to many aliens who love to cause havoc. Give them a wide berth when overtaking or there might be an horrendous smash.

▲ Hang a right Mr Potato Head or you'll go careering into the sign on this tight hairpin bend. Time to go and catch the sheriff...

▲ Who said women can't drive? Watch out spuddy the gal's on your bumper and motoring down the straight.
▲ All your favourite stars from the Toy Story films are motoring onto your Game Boy Color. The toys are back in town, but they don't quite cut the mustard. Shame on you Mr Lightyear!

Croc 2

By THQ Price £24.99 Game Link X
Infra Red X Game Boy X Game Boy Color ✓

What it's about Croc's back on your Game Boy Color for more cute, puzzle solving action. One day while wandering along the beach, lucky ol' Croc finds a message in a bottle from his long lost parents. It appears that the elder Crocs have been looking for their wayward son, so our hero decides to cross his dangerous island to find them. Only evil Baron Dante stands in his way.

We think This is a huge improvement on Croc's original adventure. The action focuses on puzzle solving rather than platform hopping, and some of the teasers will have you tearing your hair out. The layout of some levels is quite confusing but, with clever puzzles and a few interesting mini games, Croc is a great way to while away the hours.

▼ Baron Dante's minions roam across the levels, hoping to cut Croc with their razor sharp swords. Don't let them near you!

▲ If you take too many hits from one of Dante's goons, Croc loses a life. Try again, Croc boy!

▲ Here he is, the star of the show... Croc! He may be based on one of the world's most deadly animals, but he sure is cute and cuddly!

▲ Many of the puzzles require you to push large columns around. This can be really, really difficult! Just look at the strain on Croc's face.

► The graphics in Croc 2 are great, and they make good use of the Game Boy Color's screen. It's definitely a big improvement on the first Croc game.

▲ Look out for these fuzzy guys as they give you details on your next daring mission. Listen to what they've got to say then hop to it.

▲ As you collect gems around the island, you can use them to buy useful items in this shop. Choose wisely as your purchase could save your skin.

◀ Croc might look sweet, but he's got some dead useful attacks up his sleeve. Using his tail he can spin around in tight circles and batter the baddies who cross his path.

The Simpsons

By THQ Price £24.99 Game Link X
Infra Red X Game Boy X Game Boy Color ✓

What it's about It's Halloween, and the Simpsons have been telling each other ghost stories. Unfortunately, when they fall asleep the whole family are sucked into a nightmare world where they have to escape the Treehouse of Horror.

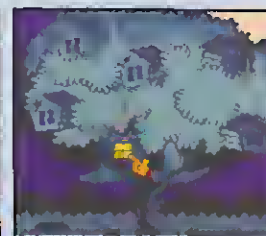

We think Treehouse of Horror isn't a bad game, but it isn't great either. The graphics are true to the cartoons and, if you're a fan, you'll feel at home. But it can be jerky, and the platform action isn't varied enough to keep you coming back for more.

▲ In the first level, Bart has to find a series of fuses to get the lights working in the Simpson house.

▲ For protection against the groovy ghoulies, Bart uses his highly strung catapult.

▲ All the levels are accessed through this Treehouse of Horror. It's not exactly pant staining stuff.

▲ Doesn't that three eyed fish look familiar? It featured in a classic Simpson TV episode.

Roswell Conspiracies

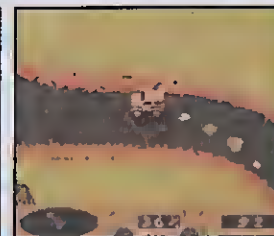

By Ubi Soft Price £24.99 Game Link X
Infra Red X Game Boy X Game Boy Color ✓

What it's about Aliens are roaming Earth disguised as werewolves and vampires. You play Nick Logan, a fearless Detection Agent whose mission is to unmask the extra terrestrials.

We think Conspiracies is a good idea, but it's too complex for GB. The levels try to be mean 'n' moody, but they're so dark it's too hard to see what's going on. The monsters are hardly evil, either.

▲ The action's dark, so finding your way around can be a pain.

▲ Driving sequences link some levels. Watch for UFO attacks!

▲ When fighting this big boss, the hero looks tiny on the screen.

GAME SCORE 65%

Elevator Action

Infra Red X Game Boy X Game Boy Color ✓

What it's about Choose one of three agents in a mission to steal documents from heavily guarded buildings. Use lifts and ventilation shafts to move round, looking for doors which hide the goodies. Get 'em and get the heck out!

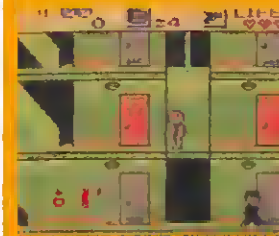

We think Elevator Action was an arcade game in the 1980s, but it hasn't aged well. The action's repetitive, and it soon becomes boring. If you want thrills from yesteryear, check out Defender or Moon Patrol. They rock!

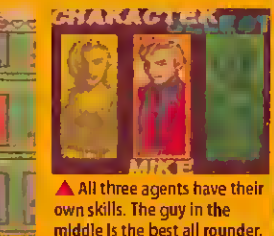

▲ The heroes can use a gun to blast the baddies, but the evil goons will also fire back!

▲ Before a mission begins, listen to a briefing from your boss. This big cheese knows everything.

▲ Look out for 'I' doors as they hide the documents.

▲ All three agents have their own skills. The guy in the middle is the best all rounder.

Action Man Search for Base X

By THQ Price £24.99 Game Link X
Infra Red X Game Boy X Game Boy Color ✓

What it's about Join the plastic prince as he yomps across icy wastelands and rocky mountains to defeat his arch nemesis and world threatening Base X. Platform hoppin' and baddie blastin' are the order of the day.

We think With repetitive action, poor controls and unimaginative enemies, this is best avoided. All you have to do is memorise each monster's position and blast them before they attack. There are better blasters than this dog.

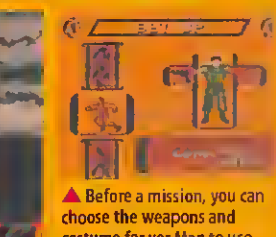

▲ In the jungle level, ol' eagle eyes can cling onto vines and swing between perilous platforms.

▲ Dress Action Man in a diver's costume and he can tackle underwater missions with ease.

▲ Action Man tackles robots in the icy cold with only a vest. That's hard!

▲ Before a mission, you can choose the weapons and costume for yer Man to use.

What it's about You take control of Disney's latest hero, Doug, and his super hero alter-ego Quailman. Patti Mayonnaise is missing, and it's up to Doug and his dog, Porkchop, to find her.

We think Only younger gamers will get a kick out of the colourful graphics and simple puzzles. Quailman's dream sequences are fun, which makes us wonder why it wasn't based on his adventures!

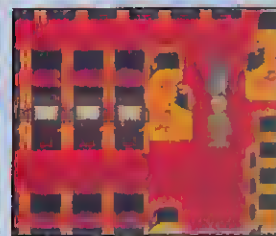

▲ Talk to all the people you meet on your journey to get vital clues.

▲ Before playing a mini game, you get to see Quailman. Cool!

▲ Daydream games are the best. Here, you have to topple the bully.

▲ There are loads of top locations, including the arcade in the local mall.

Pokémon Gold & Silver

The craziest Pokémon game is finally here and we've got a hatful of tips to get you started...

Pick a Pokémon

Your Gold and Silver quest is sprawling so it's just as well that there's someone on hand to help you out.

Professor Elm is the name and he's the man with three starting Pokémon for you to pick and a wealth of knowledge to boot.

After talking to your Mum and getting the Poké Gear, it's on to Elm's lab which is next door to collect your first creature...

Chikorita

If you're a top Trainer, this Grass Type is the best choice. She's not too hot against the initial Gym Leaders or wild Pokémon, so put her in a decent squad to get the most out of her.

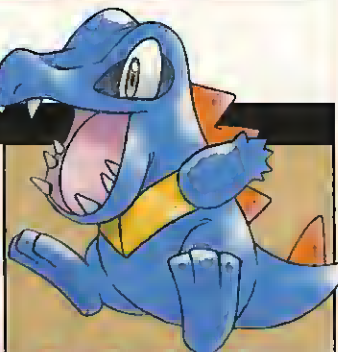

Poké Rating

Totodile

Unlike Chikorita, this cutie can put up an excellent fight against the first few Leaders. This Water Type is great at learning Hidden Machines like Waterfall and Whirlpool.

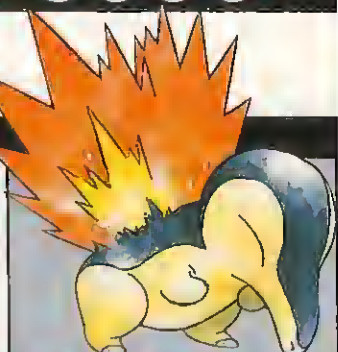

Poké Rating

Cyndaquil

Definitely the best bet for the job. One of the hardest in the whole game and its evolution, Typhlosion, will destroy the Elite Four in a trice. Get off to a winning start with Cyndaquil.

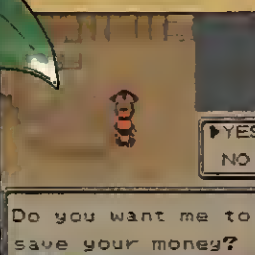

Poké Rating

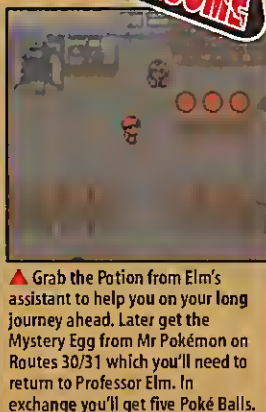

New Bark Town

The starting point to the whole game is this small village, New Bark Town.

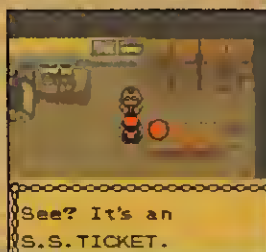

There are many goodies to pick up and others to return for as your journey unfolds...

▲ Talk to your Mom about a savings account and she'll use the money to buy goodies which you won't get elsewhere. If your squad faints you'll lose half your money, but your Mom's won't be touched. ► Show Professor Elm the hatched Togepi for an Everstone and after getting eight Badges the Master Ball will be yours. Pop back to Elm's lab after defeating the Elite Four to receive an S.S. Aqua ticket.

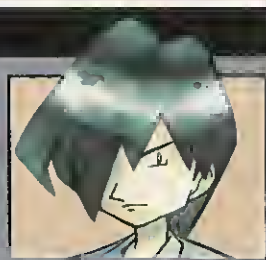

▲ Grab the Potion from Elm's assistant to help you on your long journey ahead. Later get the Mystery Egg from Mr Pokémon on Routes 30/31 which you'll need to return to Professor Elm. In exchange you'll get five Poké Balls.

Route 29

Don't worry about fighting down this route as there are plenty of decent people along the way with loads to talk about.

The first time you walk down here there isn't much to get, but be sure to return for some class goodies...

▼ Quickly zip off to Route 46 once you've got some Poké Balls to find wild Geodudes and Spearows. Make sure you stand in front of the trees and hit Ⓢ to get a Berry, too.

▲ Leaf Fallner and Lusca will appear on Route 29 every Tuesday to give you a Pink Bow. This powers up Normal moves. Chat to the Poké Ball teacher after dropping off the Egg for some top catching tips.

Cherrygrove City

This mighty town is where you'll battle it out in your first Gold and Silver Pokémon duel.

Your Rival is the Trainer in question, but you won't experience any problems if you've built them up in training.

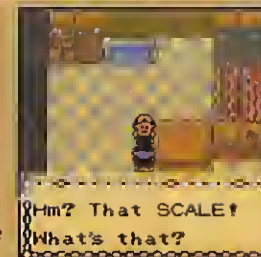

▲ After collecting the Mystery Egg from Mr Pokémon enter the Pokémon Centre to recharge your squad 'cos you'll meet your Rival on your way to New Bark Town. You'll have no problems winning now! ◀ You'll spot an island near the city. When one of your creatures can use Surf outside battle, swim over to find Mystic Water. This excellent brew improves the power of your Water Pokémon.

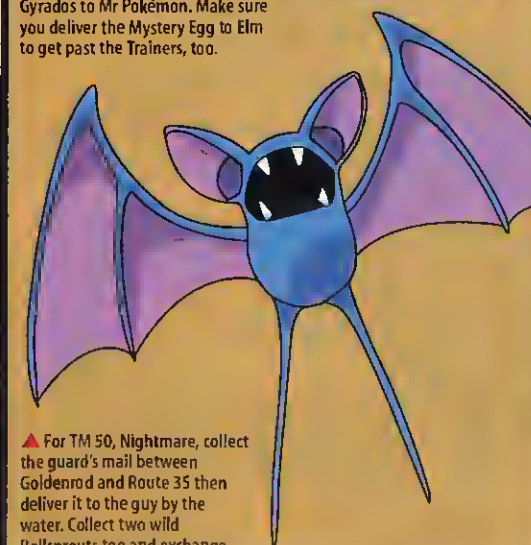

Routes 30/31

Home to Bellsprouts and many other wild Pokémon, these routes are packed with goodies for you to collect.

Look out for Mr Pokémon's house and Professor Oak, who will give you the Pokédex to record your creatures.

► To build a strong team with Experience Share give the Red Scale from the Lake of Rage's Red Gyrados to Mr Pokémon. Make sure you deliver the Mystery Egg to Elm to get past the Trainers, too.

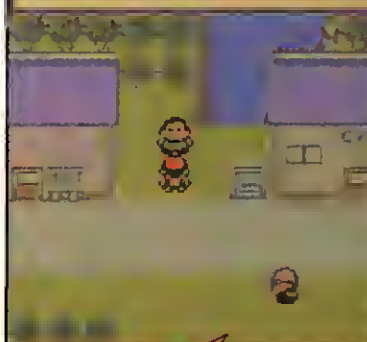

▲ For TM 50, Nightmare, collect the guard's mail between Goldenrod and Route 35 then deliver it to the guy by the water. Collect two wild Bellsprouts too and exchange one for Onix in Violet City.

Violet City

There's loads to check out in this place, so get your hunting head on and go for a look around.

Heal your monster squad too as your first Gym Leader battle is about to take place against the mighty Falkner...

◀ First up, talk to the man by the Gym and you can learn some last minute tips down at Earl's Pokémon Academy. Build up your Pokémon team in Sprout Tower, too.

◀ Now here's why you needed to exchange a Bellsprout for Onix. Falkner's Normal/Flying squad, that includes Pidgey, is useless against Rock Types. Whup his ass with Onix and get the Zephyr Badge and TM 31, Mud Slap.

Sprout Tower

Now it's time for the dark and dank tower that's home to many Sages and their Pokémon squads.

If you picked Fire Type Cyndaquil at the start of the game then you'll be well on your way to some impressive victories.

▲ On the top floor is a Sage and Flying Types will see of his Bellsprouts while Onix or Geodude will beat his Hoothoot with ease. Beat him and you'll get Flash.

▲ Enter the Tower at night to get yourself a Gastly. These spooks can't be caught using Normal attacks, so hit 'em with a Pokémon who will defeat them quickly.

Poké Power

We'll have more Gold and Silver tips next month, but if you've got any in the mean time send them in to the usual address...

Game Boy Test

From linking to magnifying, we've got it covered...

While away the hours in the car with this pack that contains an AC adapter, light magnifier, Link Cable, car adapter and mini light.

By: Ubi Soft
Type: Platform adventure
Release: 22 June

He might be one of the weirdest ever heroes, but you can rely on Rayman to save the day as he swoops back into action in one of the hottest GBA titles we've seen.

Confirmed as a UK launch title, Rayman Advance once again sees you battling the infamous Mr Dark and his evil minions.

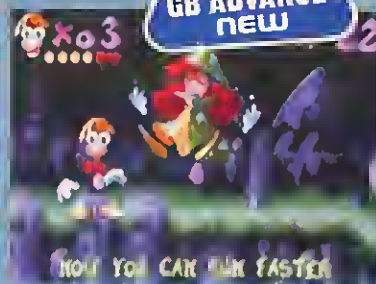

The nasty meddler has stolen the Great Protoon, the energy source of Betilla The Fairy and imprisoned the Electoons.

Rayman's mission sees you battling evil creatures across six worlds from The Dream Forest to Picture City to save your buddies.

With a mind blowing 62 stages to unlock and loads of wild and wacky monsters to meet, this will be an essential purchase.

▲ Rayman will be making even more body parts if he gets snapped by this monster's jaws.
▶ Rayman can learn loads of cool new moves.

only one way across, but those tricky platforms look kinda strange. Watch your step!

you'll meet some amazing bosses as you travel from the Dream Forest to Picture City.

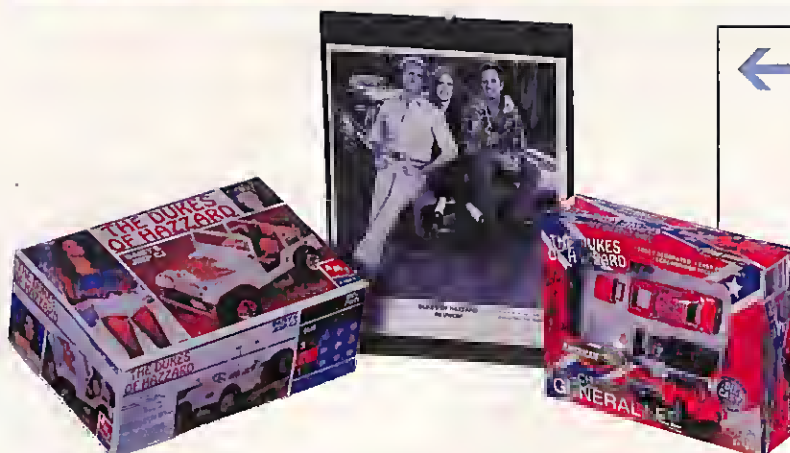

We think...

Rayman Advance will be one of the hottest UK launch titles. With graphics that'd look at home on a PlayStation and platform excitement at every turn, keep a close eye on this little gem.
